

Loft 4

A man cave photo studio in DTLA with the large RGB screen, pool table and leather furniture

Important! It's a self-check-in studio. There will be no employee at the front desk during your booking. The digital screen size is 16.5 ft wide and 8.5 ft high. Please don't lean anything on a screen or touch it. The screen is only working with in-studio laptop provided for your shoot and connected to the screen. You can find photo or video files online to display on a screen using the studio laptop. Or you can bring your own hard drive with files to connect to the studio laptop. Please be advised that the studio laptop can only see hard drives that are compatible with Windows.

LA Loft studios come with included 2 LED panels with light stands, instead of Strobes and C-stands. We don't provide strobes, light modifiers, c-stands, or backdrops at this location.
